Reaching the summit means reaching the top, the highest, and the best. Whether mountain climbing, cycling, or simply a personal goal of any kind.

The Summit by MossCreek similarly reaches the the summit of great design for a rustic home living where friends and family feel welcome. The exterior of the Summit features log siding, tapered stone piers, timber porch framing, and metal roofing.

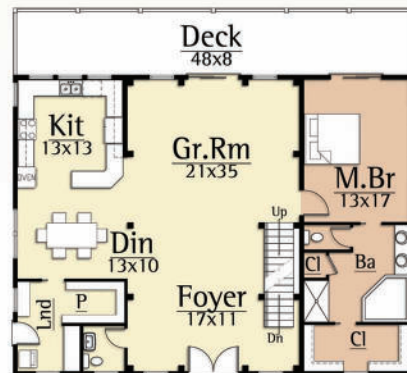

The interior is denoted by an open Kitchen/ Dining/ Great Rm that allows everyone to be in on the fun, while three bedroom suites ensure comfort for you and your guests. An upper level loft provides the perfect gathering space and lookout deck. Truly a house designed to reach the summit!
