

MOSSCREEK

RUSTIC AMERICAN HOME DESIGN

TAMARACK

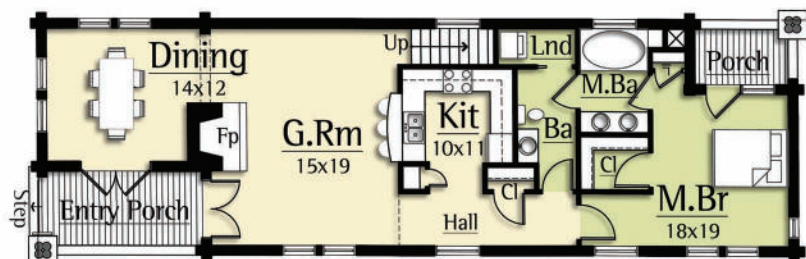

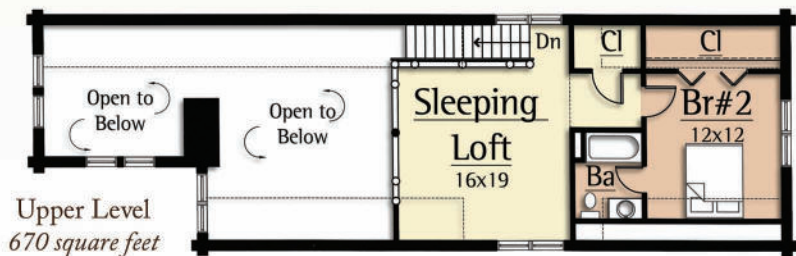

Copyright 2012 MossCreek
www.MossCreek.net
800.737.2166

The Tamarack is a species of larch native to northern North America. It is a small to medium-size deciduous coniferous tree that is very cold tolerant, able to survive winter temperatures down to at least -65°C , and commonly occurs at the arctic tree line at the edge of the tundra.

Similarly, the Tamarack by MossCreek is a small home designed to challenge the natural elements, keeping you warm in the harshest of conditions.

TAMARACK
1,887 total square feet

Copyright 2012 MossCreek

www.MossCreek.net • 800.737.2166