In the 1920's the remote logging town of Tremont flourished with both simple and elaborate mountain homes. Executives and workman lived side by side in an isolated area along the the Middle Fork and Little River. Although they were miles from "civilization," they used their ingenuity to create masterful homes from the locally found mountain materials.

The Tremont Camp by MossCreek captures this same spirit of rustic luxury with 3 bedrooms, 2 1/2 baths, including a master on the main level. A large story and a half vaulted Great Room with exposed timber trusses and an open Kitchen / Dining Room complete a dramatic interior. Exterior timber and bark detailing complete the feel of this modern mountain camp.
